The Surveyor General of New Mexico, by an act of Congress approved on the 22nd July 1854, is required to "make a full report on all such claims as originated before the cession of the Territory to the United States by the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo of 1848, denoting the various grades of title with his decision thereon as to the validity or invalidity of each of the same under the laws, usages, and customs of the country before cession, and to the United States."—And he is also required to make a report in regard to all Pueblos existing in the Territory, showing the extent and locality of each, stating the number of inhabitants in the said Pueblos respectively, and the nature of their titles to the land. Such report to be made according to the form which may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, which report shall be laid before Congress for such action thereon as may be deemed just and proper with a view to confirm bona fide grants and give full effect to the Treaty of 1848, between the United States and Mexico.

Claimants in every case will be required to file a written notice, setting forth the name of the "present claimant," name of original claimant, nature of claim, whether a whole or partial title, date from what authority the same was derived, with a reference to the evidence of the power and authority under which the granting of the same may have been made, and the locality, title, and extent of the claim, if any, claimant, or his representatives, experience and belief in the validity of the claim, and to make a copy of the same, and to file the same with the Surveyor General.

Every claimant will be required to furnish a sworn statement of survey, if a survey has been made, or a sworn statement showing the precise boundaries of the land claimed.

It is the duty of the Surveyor General to execute the duties of the Surveyor General, and he is to require all those individuals who claimed lands in New Mexico before the Treaty of 1848, to produce the evidences of such claims at this office at Santa Fe as soon as possible.

All individuals claiming the benefit of such donation will find it to their interest to give the earliest possible information to the Surveyor General, as to the localities of their settlements, in order to enable him to direct his surveying operations accordingly. The localities in each county shall be described as distinctly as possible in reference to any and all notable objects in the vicinity.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, a convention between the United States of America and his Majesty the King of the kingdom of the two Sicilies was concluded and signed by their respective plenipotentiaries at Naples on the first day of October eighteen hundred and fifty-five, which convention, being in the English and Italian languages, is, word for word, as follows:

A TREATY.

The United States of America and his Majesty the King of the kingdom of the two Sicilies, equally animated with the desire of strengthening and perpetuating the relations of amity and good understanding which have at all times subsisted between the two countries, desiring also to extend and consolidate the commercial intercourse between them; and convinced that nothing will more contribute to the attainment of this desirable object than an entire freedom of navigation, the abolition of all differential duties of navigation and of commerce, and a perfect reciprocity, based on principles of equity, equally beneficial to both countries, and applicable alike in peace and in war, have resolved to conclude a general convention of amity, commerce, navigation, and for the surrender of fugitive criminals. For this purpose, they have respectively appointed plenipotentiaries to wit: the President of the United States has appointed Robert Dale Owen minister resident of the United States near his Majesty the King of the kingdom of the two Sicilies; and his Majesty the King of the kingdom of the two Sicilies has appointed Don Lewis Carafa della Spina, of the dukes of Traceto, weekly Majordomo of his Majesty, Commander of his Royal Order of civil merit of Francis the First, Grand Cross of the distinguished royal Spanish order of Charles the third, grand officer of the order of the legion of honor, grand cross of the order of St. Michael of Bavaria, grand cross of the Florentine order of merit under the title of St. Joseph, grand cross of the order of merit of Parma under the title of St. Ludovico, grand cross of the Brazilian order of the Rose, charged provisionally with the Portfolio of foreign affairs; and Don Michael Gravina e Requesenz, Prince of Comitini, his gentleman of the bedchamber in exercise, Chevalier grand cross of his royal order of Francis the first, invested with the grand cordon of the order of the legion of honor, and the grand cross of the following orders, namely; of Leopold of Austria, of the Red Eagle of Prussia, of the White Eagle of Russia, of St. Maurice and Lazarus of Sardinia, of Dannenborg of Denmark, of Leopold of Belgium, and of the crown of oak of the low countries, late his minister Secretary of state; and Don Joseph Maurus Arpino, advocate-general of the grand court of accounts, and the said plenipotentiaries, after having exchanged their respective full powers found in good and due form, have concluded and signed the following articles:

Article I.

It is the intention of the two high contracting parties that there shall be, and continue through all time, a firm, inviolable, and universal peace, and a true and sincere friendship between them and between their respective territories, cities, towns, and people without exception of persons or places. But if, notwithstanding, the two nations should, unfortunately, become involved in war, one with the other, the term of six months, from and after the declaration thereof, shall be allowed to the merchants and other inhabitants, respectively, on each side, during which term they shall be at liberty to withdraw themselves, with all their effects, which they shall have the right to carry away, send away, or sell, as they please, without hindrance or molestation. During such period of six months their persons and their effects, including money, debts, shares in the public fund; or in banks, and any other property, real or personal, shall be exempt from confiscation or sequestration; and they shall be allowed freely to sell and convey any real estate to them belonging, and to withdraw and export the proceeds without molestation, and without paying, to the profit of the respective governments, any taxes or dues other or greater than those which the inhabitants of the country wherein said real estate is situated shall in similar cases, be subject to pay. And passports, valid for a sufficient term for their return, shall be granted, as a safe-conduct for themselves, their vessels and the money and effects which they may carry or send away, against the assaults and prizes which may be attempted against their persons and effects, as well by vessels of war of the contracting parties as by their privateers.

Article II.

Considering the remoteness of the respective countries of the two contracting parties, and the uncertainty resulting therefrom, with respect to the various events which may take place, it is agreed that a merchant vessel belonging to either of them, which may be bound to a port supposed, at the time of its departure, to be blockaded, shall not, however, be captured or condemned for having attempted, a first time, to enter said port, unless it can be proved that said vessel could, and ought to have learned, during its voyage, that the blockade of the place in question still continued. But all vessels which, after having been warned off once, shall, during the same voyage, attempt, a second time, to enter the same blockaded port, during the continuance of the same blockade, shall thereby subject themselves to be detained and condemned.

By blockaded port, is understood one into which, by the disposition of the power which attacks it, with a proportionate number of ships sufficiently near, there is evident danger in entering.

Article III.

The high contracting parties, in order to prevent and avoid all dispute by determining with certainty, what shall be considered by them contraband in time of war, and as such cannot be conveyed to the countries, cities, places, or seaports of their enemies, have declared and agreed that under the name of contraband of war shall be comprised only cannons, mortars, petards, granades, muskets, balls, bombs, gun carriages, gunpowder, salt,
